Subject: Illegal usage of ACCREDIA logo and website.

Dear Sirs,

We confirm to you that the official website of ACCREDIA, the Italian National Accreditation Body, is www.accredia.it, and not www.accrediaorg.com.

ACCREDIA is not responsible for the information published on the website www.accrediaorg.com website and, in particular, the database section.

Please note that ACCREDIA did not accredit TÜV-International.

We have already disclaimed this and informed the Italian State Police, in order to have the website taken down and in order to prosecute those responsible for this fraud.

For these reasons, please consider informing all your members about this abuse, in order to avoid misleading information about our accreditation activities.

Do not hesitate to contact us (comunicazione@accredia.it) for any information that you might need.

Best regards.

Dr. Filippo Trifiletti
General Director
